Phoenix New Media Announces Sale of Investment in Tadu

BEIJING, China, May 18, 2020 — Phoenix New Media Limited (NYSE: FENG) (“Phoenix New Media”, “ifeng” or the “Company”), a leading new media company in China, today announced that it has sold all of its investment in Beijing Yitian Xindong Network Technology Co., Ltd. (“Yitian Xindong”), which owns and operates the Tadu Apps that provide digital reading services.

The Company entered into agreements with Shenzhen Shenghuayu Energy Conservation Service Co., Ltd. (the “Purchaser”), Yitian Xindong and its management, and the other shareholder of Yitian Xindong on May 18, 2020. Pursuant to the agreements, the Company sold all of its equity interests in Yitian Xindong, as well as its rights to contingent returnable consideration under certain price adjustment mechanisms in connection with its original investment, to the Purchaser for a total price of RMB313.6 million in cash. The Company acquired such equity interests and related rights for a total price of RMB288.2 million in December 2018 and March 2019. However, the competitive landscape of the online reading market has changed substantially since the beginning of 2019 and, given the COVID-19 outbreak and disagreements with the other shareholder of Yitian Xindong, the Company considered it a good opportunity to sell the investments and related rights to the Purchaser at a premium to the original purchase price and end the Company’s disagreements with the other shareholder of Yitian Xindong. The transaction closed on May 18, 2020. As a result, the Company will deconsolidate Yitian Xindong from its consolidated financial statements starting from the closing date.
